

RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

October 18, 2011

Members of the Rutgers University Community:

The Presidential Search Committee invites nominations for the position of president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. The 24-member committee charged with identifying and screening nominees has launched a national search to find the very best candidates for this critically important post and to ensure that the Board of Governors has an exemplary pool of outstanding individuals from which to select the university's next president.

Information on the search criteria, including a Leadership Statement and the Presidential Search Advertisement, can be found on the Presidential Search website.

Nominations, as well as comments or questions about the presidential search, should be emailed to presidentalsearch@rutgers.edu. While applications and nominations will be accepted until a new president is selected, interested parties are encouraged to submit materials by December 15.

The university community is also invited to participate in discussions of the attributes and qualifications desired in Rutgers' next president. Forums will be held:

- Newark: Monday, October 24, 6-8 p.m., Robeson Campus Center, Multipurpose Room
- Camden: Tuesday, November 1, 12:45-2:45 p.m., Penn 401
- New Brunswick: Monday, November 7, 6-8 p.m., Livingston Student Center, Room 202 A, B, C

Thank you for your assistance and support as we continue our search for the next leader of Rutgers University.
